ARTIST BIO

Aziza Love is a black, queer, and self-titled "Urban Soul" content curator native to Cincinnati Ohio. This "Soul Sistah" takes all genres of music, social justice, visual art, and fuses them together with meditation and community leadership techniques to create a holistic and “Bare Soul” experience.. Bare Soul is a multi-faceted production business versed in community organizing, artistic innovation, urban planning, performance art and special event production. Founder, Aziza Love, has positively contributed to a new renaissance era that not only hits the stage , but ushers the youth by way of self expression programs, meditation and movement classes, and community enrichment. Not only has she released a short film in 2019 as a directorial debut, Aziza has moved on to launch her first residency at the Cincinnati Contemporary Art Center in August 2020. This self-taught artist has graced the stage billed alongside notable creatives such as Earth Wind and Fire, Mary J Blidge, 2Chainz and many more. With this experience, her business Bare Soul LLC is growing to be an undeniable force in the world of music , film , digital content creation, art exhibition, and continued liberation of black, brown, and indigenous people.
