SAGÉ

BIO

SAGÉ (Formerly known as Shonta' Renée), is an American R&B and Soul singer, Songwriter and producer. Born and raised in Savannah Georgia, she discovered her passion for music at the ripe old age of five where she would assimilate artist such as Ella Fitzgerald, and Anita Baker by singing along while their songs would be played on the radio or on records at home. She began to find her true voice by singing in the church choir and knew that she had a true gift when she discovered that not only could she sing, but she could also write. She could write full- length songs by the age of ten and evolved as the years went by.

SAGÉ began her professional journey as a Musical Artist in July of 2011. Three years later after she found her sound, She independently release a single in August of 2014 Titled, "Mocha Man," which was released on iTunes, Google Play, Spotify and other major distribution platforms. Mocha Man received great feedback with its accompanying Music Video that peaked at over 50,000 YouTube Views in under a week. She later released two more singles entitled, "Slow Down," and "Regretful," in October of 2014. Both of which, went on to receive placement in indepedent films, and TV series for BET and major YouTube series. After a year of promotion, she went on to release a debut EP, entitiled "Situationship," which was released in April of 2015. After taking a break due to thhyroid issues, SAGÉ came back hard with her Bounce Back anthem, "3Xs Bounce Back" In 2020. She gained over 100,000 views on Instagram from the US and multiple countries in Africa through international marketing. In 2021, she went on to release another hot track entitled " It Takes 2 (Peaches n Mangoes). currently , SAGÉ is gearing up for the release and Promotion of her New Single "Like A Fly On The Wall," In addition to continuing on her journey of creation, collaboration and spreading authentic feel good , feel it in your soul music.
