Madison Grace

Short Description

Releasing her newest original songs, “all for you” and “above all”, in Spring 2021, Madison Grace continues to deliver music well beyond her years. Her debut album, Equilibrium of Contradiction, released when she was only 17, consisted of 10 original songs ranging from contemporary high-energy to intimate acoustic with influences from pop, alternative, and jazz. She began writing her first song when she was 14 years old and continues to write and record new material.

Bio

Madison Grace is a 22 year old singer/songwriter/pianist from Mobile, Alabama. In 2017, during her senior year of high school, Madison released her self-written debut album, Equilibrium of Contradiction. Her song, Floodlight, won Songwriter Universe's Best Song of the Month contest for October 2017, and was chosen as one of the top five songs for September, 2017. Madison has performed in numerous festivals and venues, such as SouthSounds Music Festival, MOB Fest, Mississippi Songwriters Festival, and she frequently performs at The Listening Room of Mobile. She was also chosen to perform in the 2017 Blast on the Bay Emerging Talent Showcase in Port St. Joe, FL, and the 2018 SouthSounds Lagniappe Showcase. Recently graduating college, Madison is working, writing new music, learning music production, and working towards her next release.
