about THE SINGER

Autumn Jones is a New Jersey native who creates an array of stories through song; An R&B singer through and through. The music she creates is an expression of her life experiences. You can find these stories on all major music platforms and catch Miss Jones expressing herself on many stages in the Tri-State area, a craft she has been perfecting since her professional start 7 years ago. She has had success performing in Boston, New York City, New Jersey, Maine and even when studying abroad in Spain. She has had the amazing opportunity to open for R&B Artists Vivian Green and Jon B. at the acclaimed South Orange Performing Art Center.

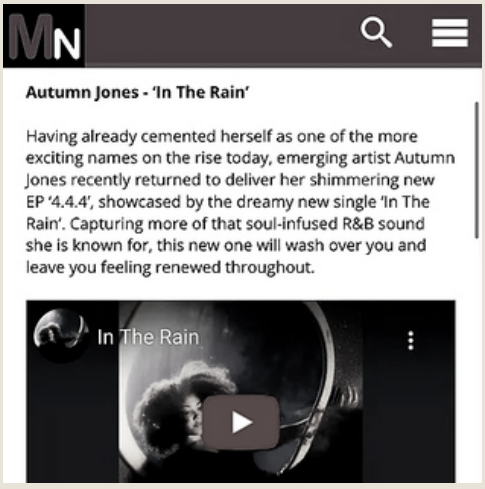

about THE MUSIC

Her releases have received some recognition over the years. Her single "Bittersweet" has won a Tracks Music Award for Best R&B Song and another for Best Studio Sound in 2021. This past February her most recent feel good jam, MONEY HONEY MANIFEST, was featured in a nation-wide Pantene commercial making this Autumn's first successful sync.

This past May, she recently dropped a new EP titled "4.4.4." A project making waves in the neo-soul realm. This Project has garnered attention and acclaim from publications like Notion and Music News.
